EMPRESS AUGUSTA DEAD.

THE WIDOW OF WILLIAM I. EXPIRES.

The English-Portuguese Complications—Burial of Empress Theresa—Sagasta Unsuccessful Foreign Notes.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—The Dowager Empress Augusta of Germany died at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the effects of influenza, from which she had been suffering for several days.

The patient, who improved somewhat Monday, had a relapse early Tuesday morning, and her physicians at once declared that her condition was critical. Her respiration was difficult and members of the Imperial family were hastily sent for. At 2 o'clock Emperor William and the Empress, with their two oldest sons, Crown Prince William and Prince Frederick, and the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Baden, son-in-law and daughter respectively of the Dowager Empress, were grouped at her bedside. Count Von Helldorf, the palace at noon, much affected at the alarming condition of the Dowager Empress. A large crowd assembled in Unter den Linden before the palace, and much sympathy was shown for the sufferer.

The family remained at the bedside until the end. The death of the Dowager Empress was immediately announced to the people.

PINTO NOT TO BLAME.

The Portuguese Government stands by its Agent.

LISBON, Jan. 8.—In Portuguese official circles it is denied that Major Serpa Pinto can rightly be made to bear responsibility for the fresh difficulties which have arisen with the natives of southeastern Africa. Not only, they say, was Serpa Pinto himself ill at Mozambique at the time when the revolt broke out, but the bulk of his forces had retired from the district, leaving the natives no immediate cause for their action. The government here believes that the sharp attacks on Portugal appearing in the English press are due to the machinations of certain English politicians seeking to force Lord Salisbury into a rupture with Portugal. The authorities here are unmoved by this newspaper warfare, but await with anxiety the tone of the debate in the House of Commons during its approaching sittings in February. The government has not recalled Senator Serpa Pinto, who only left Nyassaland to return home in order to recruit his shattered health.

England's Argument.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The British naval squadron is collecting at Zanzibar, and is supposed to be destined for Delagoa bay. Lord Salisbury insists that Portugal must give guarantees to prevent the recurrence of outrages in Africa on British subjects and interests, which, as the situation now is, must interfere with a diplomatic settlement of the misfortune standing between the two countries. The British admiral has dispatched the Enchantress with sealed orders to the Beaufort and Coosbys at Gibraltar.

The Portuguese officials at Beaulieu, on the east coast of Africa, have forbidden British steamers to receive the British Consul Johnston's dispatches direct, but insist that they must pass through the Portuguese postoffice.

DESTRUCTION OF LACKEN PALACE.

An Irreparable Loss to the Royal Family.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Edmund Yates in his London cable to the Tribune says: "The Lacken palace is an irreparable loss to the royal family of Belgium, for it was practically the only residence of the King and Queen, who greatly enjoyed the palace in Brussels, where they live very little, and the King's chateau in Ardennes is a mere shooting lodge. The loss of the building is not to be regretted, for it was an edifice remarkable only for its size, but it was literally crammed with priceless tapestry, china, and statuary, and the library contained a rare and splendid collection of books, prints, and manuscripts. The pictures were of great value and included a large number of very interesting family portraits, among which were full-lengths of Queen Victoria, the prince consort, the Duchess of Kent, the Princess Charlotte. There was also a very fine collection of miniatures and family archives, and the whole of the King's correspondence was also destroyed. The gobelin tapestries were unique, having been sent by Marie Antoinette to her sister, the Archduchess Marie Christiana, and they had remained at Lacken ever since."

EMPRESS THERESA BURIED.

The Remains of Dom Pedro's Spouse Laid in the Tomb.

LISBON, Jan. 8.—The body of the late Empress of Brazil was today consigned to its final resting place in the pantheon here. The remains were brought by the train from Oporto this morning. Dom Pedro and the family came on the same train. The King and his suite waited at the station and received them. The remains were transferred from the train to the hearse amid salutations of respect from all present. The King then bade farewell to Dom Pedro and returned to the palace. Dom Pedro and his relatives then entered the state carriage and the funeral procession moved to the pantheon. The representatives of the Empress of Germany and Austria and of the Kingdom of Spain, the papal nuncio, and the whole diplomatic corps, and the State officials met the cortege at the cathedral. After the dean had pronounced absolution the Imperial family followed the coffin to the vault and there heard the remainder of the funeral service.

NO SUCCESS FOR SAGASTA.

He Abandons His Attempt to Form a Spanish Cabinet.

MADRID, Jan. 8.—Sagasta, having found it impossible to organize a new cabinet, has resigned. The insuperable difficulty was found with the protection of Liberalism, who demanded that revision of the tariff should be made part of the government program. The Queen has consulted the president of the Cortes and leading statesmen, and it is probable that a provisional cabinet will be formed to pass the budget.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Great solicitude is reported at Madrid touching the exciting rumors in connection with the illness of the King and the political combinations likely to ensue in the event of his death. The best information obtainable today was that the royal patient had suffered a turn for the worse.

WILL MARRY A COUNT.

Miss Bayard Verifies the Report of Her Engagement.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 8.—Miss Ellen Bayard, the youngest daughter of the ex-Secretary of State, today verified the report of her engagement to Count R. A. Lewinhaus of Sweden. Miss Bayard is 21 years of age. The prospective groom is 25 years old, and tall and handsome, and is undergoing a full course in the practical mechanics at the car and ship building plant of Harland & Hollingsworth, this city. The wedding will probably take place next June at the Bayard homestead here.

THEY WERE SHIPWRECKED

Four Sailors Out of a Crew of Sixteen Managed to Escape.

YOKOHAMA, Jan. 8.—Four survivors of the American ship Cheesborough, from Hakodadi to New York, sulphur laden, which encountered a gale on the Pacific and was totally wrecked by running ashore, have arrived here. Of the remainder of the crew, sixteen in number, several were killed by falling of the rigging and others were drowned. The survivors escaped with little more than the shirts on their backs. The Cheesborough was owned in Bath, Me.

Americans to Honor Stanley.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Mr. Henry M. Stanley has accepted the invitation to attend a banquet to be given in his honor by Americans in London, and says that he will probably be in London by the middle of February. Mr. Lincoln, the American minister, will preside.

All on Board Were Lost.

VIENNA, Jan. 8.—The Austrian ship Providence, bound from Constantinople to Marseilles, foundered at sea in a heavy gale of wind. All on board were lost.

Hundreds Drowned by a Waterpout.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 8.—A waterpout is reported at Nanking. Hundreds of people were drowned. Numerous boats were destroyed and great damage was done.

Over a Hundred Boys Ill.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—One hundred and sixty boys belonging to the training ships Exmouth and Shaftesbury are suffering from the influenza.

Burning of a Belgium Theater.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 8.—The theater Bourse was destroyed by fire this morning. No lives lost.

Foreign Notes.

DR. CARVER, the champion rifle shot, is dangerously ill in London with pneumonia.

The Greek government is informed that the Porte is willing to extend the Cretan amnesty as suggested by Russia.

It has been definitely learned that six of the crew of the English yacht Invicta, which was wrecked on the Aegean rocks, were drowned.

The British steamship Llandaff City, which left Swansea for New York, returned to Queenstown in a damaged condition, having shipped a heavy sea on Jan. 5.

THE PREVAILING INFLUENZA.

Reports from Down East—Joliet Convicts Sneezing At Other Points.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The increased death rate by reason of "the grip" has been chiefly made up by deaths of persons of over 25 years of age. Out of 440 increase in a given time, eighty-seven deaths were of persons under 25. So many representative coal men are sick with the grip that the proposed conference in New York yesterday was adjourned without date.

Reports of "the grip" come from all parts of the East. The epidemic of the disease at Plainfield, N. J., Sunday. To-day while the mourners were returning from his funeral his wife died of the same malady. While suffering from influenza, J. P. Martin, Franco-Prussian veteran, sought his wife's grave in a Long Island cemetery and blew his head off with a gun. Mary Malin, aged 16, a New Hampshire shop girl, was executed yesterday because of "the grip" and dropped dead in the street on her way home. A Supreme court justice while on the bench at Elmira, N. Y., yesterday was seized with the grip and shut up court.

JOLIET, Ill., Jan. 8.—A number of prominent citizens of this city have "the grip." The disease has invaded the prison and many of the convicts are ill.

BROOKLYN, Ill., Jan. 8.—There are hundreds of victims of "the grip" in this city and county. The Hon. John Eddy, member of the Legislature, is one and David Harrison, president of the Traveling Salesmen's Association of this city, is another.

CARROLL, Ill., Jan. 8.—There are several mild cases of "the grip" here. The aged are the chief sufferers.

CONVOY, Ill., Jan. 8.—The physicians report about twenty cases of influenza here, and say that the epidemic is rapidly spreading. Several cases are serious, but none has proved fatal.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 8.—Minister of Finance Foster has the influenza. Two hundred cases are reported at Berlin.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Life Senator Grandperret and 397 other people died of influenza in Paris yesterday, and there were sixteen deaths at Frankfurt last week from the disease. An official report says that 600 German officers and soldiers at Ulm, 430 at Ludwigsburg, 130 at Stuttgart, and 115 at Heilbrunn are suffering from the influenza.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Wheeling, W. Va., is to have a new

Over two hundred miles of railroad will have been newly built in Michigan this year.

The Union Pacific officials are selecting a site in Denver for the general offices of the system.

The directors of the St. Paul & Duluth road have declared a dividend of 21 per cent upon the preferred stock.

The new Board of Directors of the East Tennessee, Virginia, & Georgia railroad has organized and re-elected the old officers.

It is said in Boston that the floating 50,000 shares of $100,000 New York and New England stock, have been taken up by the operators who control the road.

W. R. Allen, a well known engineer of the Georgia Pacific railroad, dropped dead in his locomotive. He was Chief of 307, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers of Atlanta.

The Central railroad of Georgia has just ordered 1,200 first-class improved freight and refrigerator cars and twenty-three new passenger coaches, representing an aggregate cost of over half a million dollars.

The Lehigh valley is having constructed at its Eastern shop a steam fire engine upon trucks, so that the apparatus may be quickly transferred to put out fires along the line. The engine will also be useful when cars ignite in consequence of a wreck.

There is much complaint among the business men of Franklin, Mass., at the high freight charges of the New York & New England road, and it is likely a road will be built from Franklin to Wrentham to connect with the new branch of the Old Colony new building.

W. W. Worthington, formerly general superintendent of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville, but now manager of a Southern road, has sued the Whitelaw Valley road for $37,000 salary. He claims he never saw the road, and is likely a road will be built from Franklin to Wrentham to connect with the new branch of the Old Colony new building.

THE MESSAGE OF GOV. HILL

RECOMMENDATIONS OF NEW YORK'S EXECUTIVE.

Montana Democrats Elect a Couple of Senators, Making Four From That State—Brice's Prospects.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 8.—In the annual message of Gov. Hill to the Legislature, after referring to the necessity of a provision for the enumeration of the inhabitants of the State, he urges the attention of the Legislature to the desirability of some changes in laws relating to elections, and devotes to this subject the major part of the entire message. The present laws, he says, do not reach the two great evils, intimidation and corruption, which attend our elections.

The Governor discusses at length the Australian system, describing its various provisions and features, and recommends an adoption of the secret-compartment system, the general registration of electors throughout the whole State to accompany the secret-compartment system, and provisions for both official and unofficial ballots.

In connection with the latter the Governor points out the constitutional objections to an exclusively official ballot, as provided for in the "Sexton" bill, on the subject of prohibition the Governor says he does not believe the people of the State favor the adoption of the prohibition amendment and that this ought not to be passed by the Legislature merely for form's sake or to shirk the responsibility for its defeat.

The Governor suggests some new methods of taxation, and urges the necessity of encouraging by every proper means the building of the world's fair in New York city. On the subject of finances he says the State is now substantially out of debt.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S GREAT DAY

Meeting of the First State Legislature—Rigid Economy to Be Enforced.

PIERRE, S. Dak., Jan. 8.—This was one of the greatest days in Pierre's history, on account of the assembling of the first State Legislature of South Dakota. One hundred and sixty of the 169 members of the Legislature are on hand, but as an organization was effected last fall there was little to do except to fill minor clerkships. Committees will not be named until the last of the week. The message will preach economy, and ask for rapid but safe legislation. At a caucus of the Republican members of the Legislature it was decided to economize in all branches. Every expense was cut down to a minimum, even to the extent of deciding not to hire stenographers during the session, and it was decided that the printing of the daily journal of the House and Senate proceedings be dispensed with.

IT LOOKS LIKE BRICE IN OHIO

His Adherents Full of Confidence, While His Opponents Are Demoralized.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 8.—The chances for the election of Calvin S. Brice to the United States Senatorship seem to increase as the time for holding the Senatorial caucus approaches. McMahon and Thomas are still in the race and working hard, but the anti-Brice organization appears to have gone to pieces. W. W. Armstrong, an anti-Brice man, is here, but is "flopping" by himself. The Brice men claim twenty-seven votes on the first ballot and fifty on the second. Forty will nominate.

Frank W. Knapp, Democratic representative in the Ohio Legislature, from Defiance and Paulding counties, is dying from pneumonia resulting from influenza. His death will cut the Democratic majority in the House to five and on joint ballot to seven.

THE MONTANA SENATORSHIP

W. A. Clark and Martin Maginnis Elect by the Democratic Houses.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 8.—The Democrats met this noon in joint session. Diligent effort on behalf of W. A. Clark and his friends brought out a quorum, and on the first ballot Clark and Maginnis were elected Democratic senators from Montana by a vote of 37 each. W. A. Clark was president of the late constitutional convention of Montana. He is a well known banker and mine owner of Butte. Martin Maginnis has repeatedly represented Montana as delegate in Congress. Gov. Toole signed the certificate of election, but the Secretary of State refused to sign as required by law, and also withholds the great seal of the State.

THIS WARRANT STICKS.

Callaghan Scores a Point in His Fight Against Powderly.

SCRANTON, Pa. 8.—A third warrant sworn out by Edward Callaghan, ex-assayman of Westmoreland, for the arrest of General Master Workman Powderly, was received here this afternoon by Constable Moran. The warrant covers all points of law omitted in the previous ones, and passed muster before Alderman Turner, who indicated the charge is piracy. Moran went to Powderly's residence and served the warrant. Powderly is sick in bed and said he would give bail when well.

POISONED HIS WHOLE FAMILY.

A Guyanotte, W. Va., Lad Put Out Poison in the Flour Barrel.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 8.—Today the second child of Walford Church, living at Guyanotte, died from eating bread made from flour which had been poisoned by her brother Ed, aged 17. His father refused to let him go horseback riding and he put rat poison in the flour barrel. The whole family, six in number, were badly poisoned. Two have died, the father is not expected to live and the others are in a critical condition. The boy has fled.

Sundry Mishaps

JOHN RICHARDS, a prominent farmer of Reedsburg, Wis., was found drowned in the river a mile west of his home.

The steamer Wild West, from Portland, Ore., to Puget Sound, struck a rock and sank during a heavy gale on the night of Jan. 8. The crew were saved.

While attempting to cross Rock creek at Kankakee, Ill., Frank B. Mason and Theodos Wickey, his nephew, were drowned by the capsizing of the boat. Wickey succeeded in getting ashore and attempted to rescue his uncle, but was drawn back and perished.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a peculiar medicine. It is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Figwort, Juniper Berries, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla a curative power not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures where other preparations fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best blood purifier before the public. It cures every impurity, and cures Scalds, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, all Humors, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, General Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints, overcomes that first feeling, creates an appetite, and builds up the system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has met peculiar and unparalleled success at home. Such has become its popularity in Lowell, Mass., where it is made, that whole neighborhoods are taking it at the same time. Lowell druggists sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of all other sarsaparillas or blood purifiers. Sold by druggists, $1.50 per bottle. Prepared only by C. An interesting case has been concluded before the Austrian Court of Appeal. At the funeral of the Crown Prince the Mayor of Horitz, in Bohemia, called together the town council to pass a vote of condolence with the imperial house. After having addressed the town councilors the Mayor asked them to rise as an expression of their grief. All rose except one councilor, who remained seated. This was regarded as an offense to a member of the imperial family and it has been punished with two months' imprisonment.

But as true as life depends on drops of blood, the price of clothing depends on the "Thermometer," and in place of the thermometer reading below zero it held its own among the sixties this winter. Our clothing is not exempt from this inflexible rule, and in place of being on our customers' backs they lay heaped upon our counters. Had it not been for the warm weather and open winter we would be able to have fulfilled our promise to the public and leave January 1st. FUEL.

CHAPTER I.

Such sensational literature as that, which has recently been published, giving prices of fuel, may lead thinking people to pursue some such train of reflection as the following:

Is it not well known that the prices made would result in serious loss on legitimate business?

How is this loss to be made up?

Careful business men are very slow to offer something for nothing, and the wise and prudent consumer who recalls the unprofitable experience of the past, is not likely to accept such a proposition rashly.
